

Surya - Sun

- Sun or Surya is a royal planet and the king in astrology.
- He represents the soul, will power, father, paternal relations, king, or high officials.
- Surya is a fire element; Leo is its rashi & it stays 30 days in a rashi.
- It has only 7° aspect.
- Sun represents all government work, jobs, politicians, bureaucrats, etc.
- Sun is the karaka of all bones in the body.
- Surya signifies leadership, authority, dominance, strength, and fatherly qualities.
- Color of Sun: Bright Red

Sun in Different Houses

1st House

- These people with Sun in the 1st house or Ascendant are born leaders, but they should avoid overshadowing others.
- Gives wisdom and a positive attitude toward life.
- Being the king and a fire element, the Sun can make the native short-tempered or angry.
- Good for a political career, leadership roles, etc.
- These people have high ambitions in life and work hard to achieve them.

2nd House

- Natives with Sun in the 2nd house are effective talkers and leave a lasting impression.
- They are intellectual and inclined toward research and scientific pursuits.
- Good orators, but this position is generally not good for marriage and family matters.
- Can display a rebellious attitude toward family.
- If afflicted or aspected by malefics, the native may become a spendthrift and a rebel.

3rd House

- Bravery, vigor, and strength are bestowed on the native.
- Good speaker but will speak only when necessary.
- Conflict with younger siblings is possible.
- Energetic, optimistic, religious, and hardworking.
- Honored by government, poetic, and interested in occultism, meditation, and sports.

4th House

- The native values cultural and family traditions.
- Leads a stable, peaceful life even in difficult times due to inner calmness.
- Government jobs, politics, or bureaucratic careers are favored.
- Afflicted Sun: May bring greed, immoral tendencies, or conflicts with the mother.
- Native may live away from the native place.

5th House

- Natives are mentally strong, adventurous, and courageous.
- May be inclined toward acting, writing, or performing arts.
- Afflicted Sun: Can cause educational setbacks or problems with children.
- Natives are devoted to children but may face strained relationships with them.
- Wealth accumulation is possible through personal efforts.

6th House

- Natives are determined, sincere, and hardworking.
- Exceptional problem-solving skills and ability to overcome enemies.
- Attached to work accomplishments and show pride in their efforts.
- Inclination toward yoga, good relations with family, and pursuit of good deeds.

7th House

- Challenging married life with a desire for luxuries from the spouse.
- May become selfish, furious, and sensitive to rejection.
- Possibility of second marriage, venereal diseases, or piles/fistula.
- Helpful by nature, but may force advice on others.
- Popular in the workplace.

8th House

- Foreign residence is likely.
- Talkative and impatient, sometimes speaking without purpose.
- Luck doesn't favor consistently.
- Short-tempered, cunning, and mentally restless.
- Health issues: Venereal diseases, widowhood, and fire-related accidents.

9th House

- Truthful, religious, and fond of spiritual teachers and deities.
- Weak health in childhood but wealthy in youth.
- Troubled relationship with father and possible defamation from the government.
- Idealistic, visionary, and wise, but may face conflicts with authorities.

10th House

- Talented, happy, generous, and egoistic.
- Close to politicians and higher authorities.
- Bestows power and authority, enabling the native to dominate.
- Destined for recognition and leadership in government-related work or high-ranking jobs.

11th House

- Wealthy, fond of the opposite sex, and charitable.
- Strong influence and affluence in life.
- Humanitarian approach, with a happy and satisfied life.

12th House

- Foolish and whimsical, rude, and interested in others' spouses.
- Introverted, always seeking personal space.
- Inimical relationship with father, defective eyesight, and lack of wealth or children.
- Loss of wealth through government or other authorities.

Moon

- Qualities signified by Chandra.
- Moon represents mother as a relationship.
- All businesses related to water, milk, females, education, etc., are determined by the Moon.
- Silver is the element of the Moon.
- The direction of the Moon is north-west.
- The sign in which your Moon is placed in the birth chart is called your Janma Rasi.
- The star constellation in which your Moon is placed is called your Janma Nakshatra.

Moon in different houses

1st house

- Mind rules the body.
- Very moody and fickle-minded.
- These people are attention-seeking and concerned about their personality.
- These people are wealthy and beautiful.
- Self-centered.

2nd house

- Family-oriented.
- Money-minded and intelligent in financial matters.
- Wealthy and has a tendency to earn more.
- Fond of liquid food.
- Speak softly and babble sometimes.

3rd house

- These people ask many questions but are not able to execute.
- Have a lot of dreams during the early morning.
- Love traveling.
- Speak less.
- Possess some creative talent.
- Go into a trance very fast.
- Good observers.

4th house

- Not good since it causes Karkabhavnasham.
- Bad relationship with mother or lack of care for mother's emotions.
- Loss of mother if very badly placed.
- Very fond of pleasure and the opposite sex.
- Generally sad and have disturbed sleep.

5th house

- They dream more about past lives.
- Very emotional about kids.
- If the Moon is ill-placed, they are deprived of kids.
- Good education and sharp learners.
- Good sadhaks, love mantras.

6th house

- Most diseases are caused by their mind, not in reality.
- Trouble in relationships, especially with their spouse.
- Easily get into negativity.
- Prone to mental disorders.

7th house

- Good house for the Moon; their partners are caring.
- Very wealthy.
- Caring and beautiful.
- Possess some creative talents.

8th house

- Baalrishta Yoga, not good for health.
- Doubts always remain in the mind.
- Prone to mental disorders.
- Closeness to in-laws.
- Interested in research, mysticism, tantra, mantra, and astrology.

9th house

- Generally, have long journeys.
- Work related to the navy or water.
- Spiritual in nature, love doing religious deeds.

10th house

- Work or professions keep changing.
- Love to work.
- Good planners but poor executors.
- Imagine everything about work even before starting.
- Good for poets, songwriters, and storywriters.
- Good for transport and creative jobs.

11th house

- They have more opposite-gender friends than same-gender ones.
- Their desire fulfillment is very powerful.
- They are always welcomed and desired by people.

- People-friendly.

12th house

- Not good for mental health, creates disorders.
- Easily gets into negativity.
- Spendthrifts.
- They will take advice from everyone but do what they want.
- Easily get into depression.

Mercury

- Mercury is the prince in the solar system.
- It is an earth element and controls two rashis: Gemini and Virgo.
- Mercury stays about 4 weeks in a rashi.
- It represents speech, intelligence, maternal uncles, short journeys, medical profession, trade, computers and the web, astrology, and knowledge of the shastras, accounts, mathematics, journalism, printing, and publishing.
- Its metal is bronze, gem is emerald, color is green, and direction is north.
- It is the karaka of voice and the main karaka of business and intellect.

Mercury in different houses

1st house

- Mercury in the lagna (Ascendant) makes the person very intelligent and gives them a great sense of humor.
- If Mercury is in its own rashi or exalted, it forms a great Rajyoga and makes the native very intelligent and a great mathematician.
- Being a benefic planet in the lagna, it gives prosperity and fame to the native.
- If Mercury is afflicted, the person has multiple thoughts and changes their mind frequently.
- Afflicted Mercury in the 1st house makes the person characterless, and if it is with Rahu, it can cause depression.

2nd house

- Mercury in the 2nd house makes the person intelligent and gives good education.
- The person is born into a rich family and receives good initial education.
- Mercury in this house makes the person very diplomatic in speech.
- If afflicted, the native becomes a liar:
 - If with Ketu, the person becomes hesitant to speak.
 - If with Rahu, they speak too much.
 - If with Jupiter, they are very polite.
 - If with Saturn, they become a liar.
- Mercury in the 2nd house makes the native business-minded and lucky.
- If afflicted, the native has a tendency to steal money and commit financial malpractices.

3rd house

- The 3rd house is the house of communication, and Mercury is its karaka.
- Mercury in this house makes the native a very good communicator and skilled in fields like astrology, teaching, consultancy, mobile communication, and the media industry.
- Mercury in the 3rd house is good for publication, spiritual activities, media, advertising, and communication.
- Writers, poets, journalists, and orators generally have Mercury in or associated with the 3rd house.

- Afflicted Mercury in this house makes the person a cheater with harsh speech, and they face trouble while traveling.

4th house

- Mercury in the 4th house gives a career related to software, communication, trading, etc.
- It makes the person very intelligent and interested in creative activities.
- The person lives in a big house and has a cordial relationship with their mother.
- Mercury in the 4th house gives properties, money, and happiness.
- It can lead the native to foreign lands.
- Afflicted Mercury here makes the person a cheater, characterless, and interested in pleasure-seeking.
- The native doesn't focus on one job and tries to multitask, making them restless.

5th house

- The native is well-educated, very intelligent, a writer, and a good poet.
- Mercury in fiery signs makes the person skilled in math, astrology, Vedic studies, and dancing.
- In earthy signs, it is good for learning physics, palmistry, and grammar.
- In water signs, it makes the native a clerk, language expert, and administrator.
- Mercury in the 5th house is very good for children, but if afflicted in a female chart, it can cause abortions.
- A badly placed Mercury in the 5th house makes the native confused and reduces decision-making power.

6th house

- If well-placed, Mercury gives very good intellect and fame but makes the native combative.
- It grants spiritual and divine knowledge from saints.
- Afflicted Mercury gives poor intellect, mental issues, skin problems, poor digestion, and diseases in the genitals.
- A badly placed Mercury in the 6th house creates obstacles in education.

7th house

- Mercury, although a benefic planet, causes problems in marriage due to its dual nature and impotent qualities.
- It gives issues with potency, and any relationship of Mercury with the 7th house can cause marital problems.
- Since it's a benefic planet, it makes the person intelligent, well-learned, obedient, and famous.
- The spouse of the native may come from an influential family and be very intelligent and beautiful.
- If Mercury is badly placed, it causes worries after marriage, conflicts, divorce, and even multiple marriages.

8th house

- Mercury in the 8th house is the best placement for becoming an astrologer.
- The native is spiritual and has a commanding speech.
- Longevity increases, and the native lives a healthy life and dies peacefully.
- Mercury in this house grants parental properties, inheritance, and wealth.
- If afflicted, it makes the person a crook, liar, and filled with sexual desires.
- Afflicted Mercury reduces the native's lifespan, causing mental disorders, skin problems in the lower body, and pains in the thighs and legs.

9th house

- Mercury in the 9th house makes the person highly intelligent, a scientist, researcher, singer, music composer, and very rich.
- It makes the person spiritual, philosophical, religious, and an astrologer.
- It fosters good relationships with fathers and gurus.
- If Mercury is badly placed, the native becomes rebellious toward religion, has a bad relationship with their father, and is fickle-minded.
- The native becomes restless and tries to multitask but doesn't complete anything.

10th house

- If exalted or in its own sign, Mercury forms a great Rajyoga here.
- The native becomes famous in their profession, excels in communication, and is very close to influential people.
- The native earns through communication, software, creative fields, or any intellectual profession.
- The native has a sharp memory, is intelligent, and gains early career success.
- If Mercury is badly placed, it causes career uncertainty, poor decisions, and recklessness in work.

11th house

- The native is blessed with the best qualities.
- Good Mercury here grants many friends and scientific knowledge.
- The person is intelligent, famous, prosperous, happy, and likely to run a business.
- Strong Mercury here fulfills all the native's desires, attracting love from the opposite sex.

12th house

- This is a bad placement for Mercury.
- The native has poor memory and weak decision-making power.
- They may cheat people, disobey the law, and become lazy and uneducated.
- The person travels a lot, especially to foreign countries.
- If aspected by benefic planets, Mercury here gives a spiritual inclination and a strong sixth sense.

Jupiter

- Jupiter is known as Brihaspati- the guru of all Devtas. Planet Jupiter is the ruling planet of zodiac signs Sagittarius and Pisces.
- Jupiter stays in a rashi for 13 months and controls the other.

Jupiter in Different Houses

1st House

- Jupiter in the 1st house protects the native from many ill effects of other planets. According to BHPS, Jupiter in the 1st house protects the natives from 1.25 lakh obstacles in life.
- If Jupiter is well-placed (in its own sign, exalted, or in a friendly sign), it makes the native very intelligent, fortunate, and rich.
- Jupiter is the planet of dharma and wisdom. A well-placed Jupiter in the Lagna makes the person religious, charitable, and faithful to spouse and parents.
- It gives a very pleasant and magnetic personality to the native; they start their career early and achieve early success.
- Jupiter is the savior of marriage. If in the Lagna, it removes all the obstacles of marriage.
- If Jupiter is afflicted, the natives will be egoistic, have less prana shakti, and misuse their knowledge in wrongful deeds.

2nd House

- Jupiter in the 2nd house blesses the natives with a good, cultured, and renowned family.
- The native will be soft-spoken and will speak only when required.
- They will be fond of good food and will like sweets and juices.
- The native will earn money through good deeds and will be able to save money as well.
- 2nd house Jupiter makes the person earn through wisdom and intellect; they will have multiple earning sources.
- 2nd Jupiter sometimes creates problems in marriage if afflicted, as it is the 8th house from the house of marriage.
- 2nd house Jupiter aspects the 6th house, 8th house, and 10th house, hence reducing enemies, giving parental wealth, and growing the job or business of the native.
- If afflicted, Jupiter gives problems related to the mouth, liver, money, and family.

3rd House

- A well-placed Jupiter in the 3rd house makes the person a very good orator and teacher.
- Natives have spiritual inclinations and worship their dharma throughout life.
- If Jupiter is in its own sign, exalted, or in a friendly sign, it makes the person very rich; a badly placed Jupiter makes the person poor and miserly.
- It's a very good placement for teaching, publication, spiritual practices, and learning.
- If Jupiter is well-placed, the native's efforts yield fruitful results easily. They get pleasure from traveling and going on religious journeys.

4th House

- This is one of the best positions for Jupiter, as not only does Jupiter give real happiness in life, but the person also enjoys all the pleasures of life.
- The native gets a good home, cars, a good spouse, and a happy family life.
- Jupiter aspects the 10th house from here, which improves the career of the native, and they perform good deeds to earn wealth.
- 4th house Jupiter decreases obstacles in life, increases spiritual tendencies in the native, and raises the chances of salvation.

5th House

- The 5th house is the house of Purva Punya. Jupiter's position here ensures that the native gets results of all good deeds from previous births' karma.
- The native is well-educated and has very good decision-making powers.
- The native has a strong inclination towards spirituality and mantra sadhana.
- An afflicted Jupiter gives problems with children. If Jupiter is with malefic planets or aspected by malefics, it makes the person stubborn and moody.
- If Jupiter is the lord of any trine or Kendra, then this position of Jupiter gives all the happiness and prosperity in life.

6th House

- 6th house Jupiter is considered very good for career but not so good for spirituality.
- Since it aspects the 10th house, it gives a great career to the native.
- Jupiter in the 6th house saves the native from all enemies and controversies.
- If Jupiter is afflicted, it gives problems related to the liver, kidneys, and lower body.

7th House

- It gives high standards in life, a very religious and good character in a spouse, pleasure from the opposite sex, and makes the person very intelligent and attractive.
- The fortune of the natives increases after marriage.
- The native has a very strong public life, hence sometimes overlooks duties towards the spouse. However, the spouse always supports the native's activities.
- It's a very good placement for partnerships, and if Jupiter is in combination with any Kendra or trine lord, it gives immense fortune to the native.
- If Jupiter is afflicted, there are multiple problems in marriage and partnership.

8th House

- Jupiter in the 8th house is good for spirituality and mantra sadhana but creates problems in other parts of life.
- Jupiter and Venus in the 8th house create "Asur Yoga," making the native speak lies, think only of themselves, cheat others, and engage in illegal acts.
- The native will be stubborn and disliked by others.
- 8th house Jupiter gives a very long life and a peaceful death to the native.

9th House

- A good placement will make the person spiritual and devoted.
- It makes the native very rich and fortunate. They will have numerous properties and will donate to religious causes.
- The natives are very intelligent and very good in communication.
- An afflicted Jupiter in the 9th house makes the person characterless and dishonest.
- Jupiter associated with benefic planets makes the native spiritual, but with malefic planets, the native becomes unpleasant.
- Jupiter with Saturn here can form a “Sanyasa Yoga.”

10th House

- Jupiter in the 10th house gives the person fame, name, and money in their career. The native is very close to politicians, diplomats, etc.
- 10th house Jupiter makes the person a very good teacher and coach.
- They are top consultants, and people seek solutions from them.
- 10th house Jupiter gives good money, happiness, and less competition in career.
- An afflicted Jupiter here can make the native hypocritical and unable to practice what they preach.

11th House

- The native becomes rich gradually and very wealthy later in life.
- They have very good friends and blessed children.
- The native's spouse respects them like a father figure and supports their endeavors.
- It gives income from different sources.
- The native's children will support them throughout life.

12th House

- Not a very good position for Jupiter; the native aspires for sensual pleasures and gets angry easily.
- It's a good position for Moksha but not for children.
- An afflicted Jupiter here destroys good yogas in the chart.
- If well-placed, it reduces expenses and leads to religious deeds.
- Jupiter in its own rashi, exalted, or with Ketu, gives salvation or Mukti.

Venus

- Venus or Shukra is the "Daityaguru" or the guru of the demons.
- He represents spouse, sex life, kidneys and sex organs, dance, music, arts, gems and jewelers, wines, bars, gambling places, acting, fashion, cosmetics and beauty products.
- Its metal is silver, gem is diamond, direction is south-east and color is white.
- Venus takes about a month to travel through a sign.
- Venus is the owner of Vrishabh and Tula and has only the 7th aspect.

Venus in different houses

1st house

- Very beautiful, intelligent, wealthy, and good qualities.
- He will be interested in creative jobs, songs, and music.
- Will have a beautiful house and all pleasures.
- If Venus is in conjunction with a benefic, the native will have a lustrous body shining like gold and will own many ornaments.
- If Venus is associated with or aspected by a malefic or is in its sign of debilitation (Virgo), the native will be a thief and a cheat and will suffer from rheumatic and phlegmatic diseases.

2nd house

- Seek pleasure from the family and money.
- They will be lavish and will love luxury.
- The native will be wealthy, will have a family, will get good food to eat, will have attractive eyes, and will be of humble nature, kind-hearted and helpful to others.
- These people will be particular about their food.
- Will be interested in females.
- He will help others through money.

3rd house

- Will have love for others.
- Will have more sisters and fewer brothers.
- Problems in eyes, soft-speaking.
- Will love to wear neat and clean clothes.

4th house

- This is one of the best positions for Venus, as not only does Venus give cars, houses, and lots of assets, it also gives peace in the home environment.
- The person will have a beautiful and luxurious home.
- Many cars, homes, and jewelry.
- Interested in other females.
- Work related to the creative field.

5th house

- Talented in art, craft, and music.
- Will be interested in media and entertainment.
- This is also the best placement for experiencing romance throughout life; even after marriage, your spouse will be your newly found mate.
- The partner will also be very lavish and fond of luxuries.

6th house

- Diseases related to water, kidneys, and skin.
- Problems in marriage.
- Knowledge of spiritual texts.
- Jobs will be in the creative field or finance.
- Love for pets.

7th house

- Love, affection, and partners are sources of success.
- Successful after marriage, good married life.
- Spouse will be good and attractive.
- Beautiful body, happy and blessed with happiness.
- Native is passionate, sexy, and interested in the opposite sex.

8th house

- Good for age, long-lived.
- Interested in psychic research.
- Venus gives lots of wealth through the family of the spouse.
- It makes the native lord of some institution and gives easy loans from banks and family.
- Secret relationships.
- Good for the age of the partner also.
- Can have a non-vegetarian eating tendency.

9th house

- Good placement will make the person spiritual and a devotee.
- Will be fond of pundits, and love to travel.
- Can marry outside the caste or religion.
- Will be difficult for him to follow religious rules.

10th house

- Work related to the creative field.
- Beautiful body.
- He will be powerful and full of prosperity.
- He will be dealing more with females than males.

11th house

- Blessed with the best of qualities.
- Will perform Yagya.
- Very beautiful, happy.
- Loves humor and will be interested in interactions.
- Fond of the opposite sex and rich.

12th house

- Venus is the only planet that gives the best results in the 12th house.
- Stay in a foreign land.
- Blessed with all prosperity, houses, and cars.
- Will be very interested in females.
- The person will have diseases in childhood.
- More interested in material and sexual pleasures.

Mars

- Mars is a fire element and a warrior.
- It provides courage, valor, and power.
- Mars controls blood and marrow.
- It symbolizes desire and action, being the only planetary symbol representing action.
- Fearless, powerful, strong, and courageous, Mars has physical stamina and the capacity to achieve goals.
- How a person appears outwardly, how aggressive they seem, or how they pursue their goals depends on Mars's placement in the birth chart.
- Element: Copper
- Associated professions include technical education, engineering, military, police force, fire-related work, land and property, electronics, and electrical fields.

Astrological Attributes of Mars

- Causes blood-related diseases and fire-related issues like acidity, stomach problems, and surgeries.
- Mars rules two rashis: Mesh (Aries) and Vrishchika (Scorpio).
- Aspects: 4th, 7th, and 8th houses.
- Direction: South
- Karka (significator): Younger brother
- Metal: Copper, Gem: Coral, Color: Red
- Stay in a Rashi: 45 days

Mars in Different Houses

1st house

- Very energetic, hyperactive, and self-centered.
- Moles or spots on the face.
- Red-faced, easily angered.
- Wealthy and beautiful.
- Spouse gets angry easily.

2nd house

- Very good orators, especially when opposing something.
- Earns through businesses involving metals, energy, and electricity.
- Speculative in nature and rebellious toward family.
- Problems with kids.
- Receives parental property.
- Laborious and ambitious.

3rd house

- Very courageous, energetic, and laborious.

- If in Neechrashi (debilitated), gives opposite results.
- Possible conflicts with siblings.
- Good personality, sporty nature.

4th house

- Deprived of pleasure and sibling support.
- May live in foreign lands.
- Material happiness is reduced.
- Marriage problems and interest in the opposite sex.
- If in Uccharashi (exalted), gives very good results in all these aspects.

5th house

- Deprived of children or problems with kids.
- Stomach-related diseases like acidity, hernia, etc.
- Speculative in nature.
- Athletic and sportsman-like.
- Technical education and technical mindset.
- 5th house Mars suppresses past-life good deeds from manifesting.

6th house

- Victory over enemies.
- Ability to earn property and wealth.
- If Mars is badly placed, the person may indulge in ill deeds.

7th house

- Problems in marriage (Manglik dosha).
- Spouse's health or age may be affected.
- Violence in marriage and discipline issues.
- Very ambitious in nature.

8th house

- Bad for spouse's health and longevity.
- Involvement in secret relationships.
- Gains property and wealth.
- Receives parental property.
- Conflicts with in-laws.
- Death through metals, operations, or accidents.
- If in Neechrashi (debilitated), death in water is predicted.

9th house

- Not good for religious activities.
- Religious rebel and dogmatic views.

- Poor relationship with father or loss of father.
- Rebels against gurus but can complete tasks on time.

10th house

- Excellent at performing tasks and career success.
- Very energetic, leaders in their fields, and highly ambitious.
- Able to overcome problems.
- Gets angry easily.

11th house

- Easy fulfillment of desires.
- Short-sighted, wants everything immediately.
- Very calculative in financial matters.
- Wealthy and courageous.
- Easily defeats rivals.

12th house

- Performs ill deeds.
- Interested in others' wealth, property, and spouses.
- Gets angry easily.
- Not a good placement for Mars.

Saturn

- Saturn is a sterile, slow, icy, binding, invariable, arid, protective, rigid, fearful, and mysterious planet.
- It governs the zodiac signs Capricorn (Makar Rashi) and Aquarius (Kumbh Rashi).
- Its colors are Black, Dark Blue, and Dark Brown.
- Saturn is an air element and controls all the muscles in the body.
- It stays 2.5 years in one rashi, and its transit through three rashis is called Sade Sati.
- Saturn is considered the Chief Governor for Longevity, but being a malefic planet, it can cause delays, difficulties, and disharmony.
- Element: Iron, Gem: Blue Sapphire, Direction: West.
- It is responsible for technical education, mining, machinery, metals, oil, aviation, and judiciary.

Saturn in Different Houses

1st house

- Makes the person slow-moving, thoughtful, and strong-minded.
- Causes problems with hair and a slim physique.
- Delayed marriage is likely.
- If in its own sign or exalted, gives immense power to conquer enemies.
- If in an enemy sign, can cause separation from the spouse.
- Increases the chance of settling in a foreign land.

2nd house

- Indicates good health and large wealth accumulation.
- Wealth may come from illegal sources like gambling, lottery, or shares.
- May face diseases related to the face and problems with the eyes.
- Harsh speech and tendency toward tamasic food, liquor, and tobacco.
- The native may stay away from family and birthplace.

3rd house

- Possible loss of brothers or no younger siblings.
- If exalted, ensures good relations with siblings and strong communication skills.
- May face obstacles but will be ambitious and a good orator.
- Indicates a long life and interest in astrology or spirituality.

4th house

- May cause loss of the mother or strained relationships.
- If in its own house or exalted, brings property and prestigious vehicles.
- The native may face mental distress, lack of happiness, and childhood illnesses.
- Can result in living away from the native place.

5th house

- May cause childlessness, delayed children, or problems with children.
- If strong, can indicate many romantic relationships.
- Creates a lack of learning, wealth, and happiness.
- The native may wander aimlessly and be of an evil nature.

6th house

- Destroys enemies and grants fame.
- Indicates losses related to uncles.
- Can cause problems with the lower body and marriage issues.
- Enhances determination and resilience in overcoming obstacles.

7th house

- Indicates a lean-bodied spouse and delayed marriage.
- Can cause problems in marriage and multiple diseases.
- The native may experience political success or foreign honors.
- Intimacy with multiple partners is possible if exalted or in its own sign.

8th house

- Indicates long life but defective eyesight.
- May cause poverty, piles, food scarcity, and cruel behavior.
- The native may experience frequent losses and separation from friends.

9th house

- Indicates a sinful nature if afflicted.
- The father's lifespan depends on Saturn's strength.
- The native may be irreligious, cruel, childless, and troublesome to others.
- Can indicate a legal mind, charitable work, and ceremonial thinking.

10th house

- Indicates professional success, great work ethic, and foreign travel.
- May face career obstacles if associated with malefics.
- If supported by benefics, the native will be wealthy, famous, and respected.
- May indulge in sinful deeds but overcome enemies successfully.

11th house

- Ensures great wealth, influence, and political success.
- Indicates ownership of large properties and fearlessness.
- The native will be wealthy and respected despite facing some obstacles.

12th house

- Indicates interest in yoga, occult sciences, and foreign travels.

- If associated with benefics, brings happiness, good eyesight, and heavenly rewards after death.
- If afflicted, causes poverty, wasteful expenses, and body deformities.
- Indicates a restless mind, spiritual inclinations, and potential travel abroad.

Rahu

- Rahu is considered a 'Node,' 'Chayagrah,' or Shadowy planet and has a distinct, profound, and predictable impact on human lives.
- Although Rahu is not an observable heavenly body with shape and size like other planets, it has strong influencing power.
- Rahu or Dragon's Head or North Node represents foreigners, foreign countries, foreign travel, engineering and technical trades, smoke, old men, grandparents, theft, gambling, drinking, nonconformists, the underworld, and bad elements in society.
- Its color is black, its metal is mixed-metal, and its gem is Gomedh.

Rahu in different houses

1st house

- Rahu in the lagna makes the person a big planner but lacking in execution.
- If it is in fire signs, it makes the person arrogant, stubborn, egoistic, and selfish.
- People with Rahu in the 1st house are considered new to this planet and are often poor in public behavior.
- If Rahu is with malefic planets or aspected by malefics, it makes the person a crook.
- Lagna Rahu generally gives less hair and big eyes. If aspected by benefics, hair appears normal.

2nd house

- Rahu in the 2nd house makes the person a harsh speaker with a loud voice.
- If aspected by or placed with a malefic or in Saturn's rashi, it makes the person a big liar.
- Rahu here makes the person rich, but wealth sources are usually bad.
- It causes problems related to the mouth, teeth, and eyes.
- Being the house of family, Rahu here makes the person rebellious and disobedient toward family traditions.

3rd house

- Rahu in the 3rd house indicates power and hard-working ability.
- The native may be the youngest or eldest of their gender in the family.
- If aspected by malefics or placed in enemy signs, it is bad for siblings.
- This is a favorable position for sports, politics, and adventure-related activities.

4th house

- The 4th house is the house of happiness; Rahu sitting here brings sorrow and dissatisfaction in life.
- The person gets everything in life but cannot enjoy it due to Rahu's influence.
- If badly placed, it creates a home with Vastu dosha and an unorganized household.
- In female charts, women may spend much time cleaning their homes, but they never seem tidy.

- Badly placed Rahu causes problems in marriage, with the mother, and reduces life's pleasures.
- If in a friendly sign or with a benefic, Rahu can give Raj Yoga instead.

5th house

- Rahu in benefic signs gives razor-sharp intellect and excellent observation skills.
- It creates success in technology, intelligence services, research, and the tech industry.
- However, Rahu prevents good deeds from past lives (Purva Punya) from bearing fruit.
- It can create problems with children, loss of children, or bad karma with kids.
- The native may overeat without realizing it, causing stomach issues.
- For females, it can cause ovary-related problems.

6th house

- Rahu in the 6th house is considered auspicious, giving fame and authority.
- The native wins over enemies and is known as "Shatru Hanta."
- Rahu here can cause problems related to the liver, lower body, and kidneys if related rashis and planets are afflicted.
- This is a highly praised position in classical texts due to its ability to take risks, overcome competition, and adopt a "never give up" approach.
- It is a favorable position for politics, sports, and judiciary careers.

7th house

- Rahu in the 7th house is not good for marriage.
- The native may be disloyal or face betrayal from their spouse.
- If badly placed, it indicates divorce and a bad married life.
- If aspected by Jupiter, marriage may survive but still face problems.
- This placement is unfavorable for business partnerships, leading to deception.

8th house

- Rahu in the 8th house causes chronic and sexual diseases.
- This is one of the most criticized placements in classical texts.
- The native suffers from victim consciousness, attracting constant problems.
- It reduces the spouse's lifespan, causing their death before the native's.
- Rahu here leads to death after prolonged illnesses.
- If placed with benefics or aspected by Jupiter, it promotes spiritual tendencies and Kundalini awakening.
- It damages relationships, especially with in-laws.

9th house

- If well-placed, Rahu gives spiritual tendencies and makes the native a good orator.
- The person is interested in other religions rather than their own.
- If the Sun is also badly placed, the native may lose their father early in life.

- Rahu here creates obstacles in fortune, children, and marriage.
- If with a malefic, it causes problems in all life aspects.

10th house

- The 10th house Rahu is praised in classical texts for granting Raj Yoga if well-placed.
- It represents career and karma, but Rahu here creates career instability.
- The native frequently changes jobs or businesses.
- This placement enables the person to work hard and achieve their objectives, no matter the cost.
- If badly placed, the native becomes a liar and fraud.
- Rahu with the Moon enhances imagination and business planning but lacks execution.
- Found in charts of politicians, diplomats, and business magnates.

11th house

- The native is either the eldest or youngest of their gender.
- This is one of the most favorable placements for Rahu.
- It brings money, properties, and fame.
- The native has a large social circle and effectively uses contacts for personal gain.
- It often results in foreign travel.
- This position is not good for the first child.
- Wealth can be accumulated quickly through unethical means.

12th house

- Rahu in the 12th house indicates foreign residence.
- It causes problems in family, marriage, and relationships with children.
- The native spends money on wrong means.
- It causes either excessive sleep or insomnia, depending on its rashi placement.
- If aspected by benefics, it enhances spiritual tendencies.

Ketu

- Ketu, also known as Dragon's Tail or South Node, represents grandparents, technical trades, spiritual inclinations, superstitions, and electronics.
- Its color is brown, and its gem is cat's eye.
- Ketu takes approximately 1.5 years to travel through a sign and completes the round of the zodiac in 18 months.
- Ketu indicates the maternal grandfather and is also an indicator of imprisonment.
- It signifies magical power, fire, accidents, changing events, broken relationships, renunciation, and spiritual pursuits.
- Ketu is associated with punishment, imprisonment, fear complexes, allergies, and salvation.

Ketu in Different Houses

1st house

- The native will be ungrateful, unhappy, deceitful, and associated with undesirable persons.
- They will have an afflicted body and lose their position.
- They will be worried about their spouse and kids.
- The native will have confusion, instability, and frequent changes in decisions.

2nd house

- The native will be a bad speaker and prone to fraud and deception.
- They may suffer losses through fraudulent activities.
- Success is likely in spiritual activities, navigation, mystical arts, and the medical profession.
- They may lack wealth and education.
- Ketu with Mars or the Sun will further decrease eyesight.
- If Ketu is with benefics, the native will have a wonderful and soft speech.

3rd house

- Ketu in the 3rd house indicates a strong, adventurous, and reckless person.
- The native will be wealthy, powerful, long-lived, and reputed.
- They may suffer loss of brothers, anxiety, fear, and loss of friends.

4th house

- The native's mother will be in distress unless associated with a benefic planet.
- They may live in someone else's house.
- There will be losses related to the mother, land, happiness, and grain fields.
- They may have to leave their native place.

5th house

- The native will suffer from loss of children and may be of an evil nature.
- Stomach ailments are likely.
- They may experience "Pishacha Badha" (possessions or spiritual disturbances).

- They will remain dependent on others despite being courageous.
- They will have strange and peculiar experiences, becoming spiritual later in life.

6th house

- Ketu in the 6th house is considered auspicious as it gives fame and authority.
- The native will not have enemies, be intuitive, and possess occult powers.
- They will be generous, determined, famous, and authoritative.

7th house

- The person may have an unhappy marriage and indulge in immoral activities.
- There is a likelihood of abdominal or uterine cancer.
- They may face humiliation, indulge in affairs, and be separated from their spouse.
- Intestinal disorders are likely.

8th house

- Ketu in the 8th house indicates immense wealth and a long life.
- If afflicted, the person covets others' wealth and may engage in multiple relationships.
- They may be separated from loved ones, be quarrelsome, and face obstacles.
- They may possess spiritual experiences and occult powers.
- Relationships with in-laws will be bad, and the spouse may have a short life or face illnesses.
- There will be frequent accidents involving weapons.

9th house

- The native will be sinful, perform un-pious deeds, be fatherless, unfortunate, and poor.
- They will be interested in spirituality and occult sciences.
- Fortune will be limited, and obstacles will be common.
- Issues with the father and younger brothers are likely.

10th house

- The person will be clever, bold, well-known, and strong.
- They will face many obstacles throughout life.
- They may indulge in sinful deeds but gain fame for their courage.
- Life will be distressing and unfortunate.

11th house

- The native will accumulate wealth and enjoy all comforts.
- They will succeed in all undertakings.
- Their children may face unfortunate circumstances.
- Ketu in the 11th house causes financial losses in speculation, such as lottery, horse racing, and the stock exchange.

12th house

- Ketu in the 12th house indicates a restless and wandering mind.
- The native may go away and work in a foreign country.
- They will commit sins secretly and incur expenses for evil purposes.
- Eye troubles are possible.
- If aspected by or placed with Jupiter, Ketu in the 12th house supports spiritual pursuits.

Ascendant Lord in Different Houses

1st House

- If the Ascendant Lord has fallen in the Ascendant itself, the native will get physical comforts and physical prowess.
- He will be thoughtful, intelligent, fickle-minded, will have two wives, and will have sexual relations with other women than his own wife.
- This is a good combination for wealth and fame.
- The native enjoys good health, long life, intelligence, and success in life.
- If it is badly placed, it gives poor health, he will be fickle-minded, and will be involved in sinful deeds.

2nd House

- When the Lord of the Ascendant has been placed in the 2nd House, the native will be gainful, learned, happy, good-natured, religious-minded, honorable, and will have many wives and good qualities.
- The native earns money through his own efforts; he will be intelligent, good-natured, religious, and a person of reputation.
- He will be close to family and friends, with very good observation power, and will be successful in business.

3rd House

- Should the Ascendant Lord be placed in the Third House, the native will be equal to a lion in valor, will have all kinds of wealth, will be honorable, will have two wives, and be intelligent and happy.
- This is a very good placement for creative fields, musicians, artists, and mathematicians.
- If the 1st Lord is afflicted, these results are negative in nature.

4th House

- Should the Ascendant Lord be in the 4th House, the native will be blessed with paternal and maternal happiness, many brothers, and will be lascivious, virtuous, and charming.
- The native gets happiness through parents, will have many siblings, and possess a very pleasant personality.
- The native will have a big and good house and will be blessed with various pleasures.

5th House

- In case the Ascendant Lord has gone into the 5th House, the native will have mediocre happiness through his sons, the firstborn will not live, he will be honorable, wrathful, and a favorite of the king.
- This is a relationship between two trines, making it the most auspicious location for the Ascendant Lord.

- According to Jatak Parijat, if the Lord of the 1st House sits in the 5th House, the native's father will be a very famous person.

6th House

- In the event of the Ascendant Lord having fallen in the 6th House, the native is deprived of bodily pleasures.
- If the Ascendant Lord is under the influence of a malefic and has no benefic aspect on him, he will be troubled by an enemy.
- A strong 1st House Lord here gives a big position in the army or medical field. If the Lagnesh is strong, the native will have a strong body and will be interested in sports.

7th House

- If the Ascendant Lord is a malefic and occupies the 7th House, the native's wife will not live.
- If the Ascendant Lord is a benefic planet, the native will be an aimless wanderer, penurious, of ascetic disposition, or become a king.
- Since the 1st Lord aspects the Lagna from here, it gives strong health and personality to the native.
- This is a good placement for health and prosperity, though sometimes it gives two marriages.
- If the Lagnesh is in a moving sign, it indicates many journeys.

8th House

- Should the well-placed Ascendant Lord occupy the 8th House, the native will be Siddha Vidya Visharada (having the knowledge of occult powers), sickly, thievish, extremely wrathful, a gambler, and given to traversing others' wives.
- A strong Lagna Lord here gives money from lotteries, gambling, legacy, and speculation.

9th House

- If the Ascendant Lord is situated in the 9th House, the native will be fortunate, dear to the people, a devotee of Lord Vishnu, skillful, an eloquent speaker, and endowed with a wife, sons, and wealth.
- This is a favorable combination of Kendra and Trikona (trines).
- It benefits the father, who may be famous, religious, and charitable.
- An afflicted Lagna Lord will bring bad results; the native will be unfortunate, opposed by people, and disbelieving in religion.

10th House

- Should the Ascendant Lord be situated in the 10th House, the native will be endowed with paternal happiness, enjoy royal favor, gain fame among men, and have self-earned wealth.
- Self is in the house of Karma, making the native self-made.
- An afflicted Lagna Lord can bring bad results, making the native workaholic.

11th House

- In case the Ascendant Lord has been placed in the 11th House, the native will always have gains, good qualities, fame, and a good wife.
- The elder brother will help the person.
- The native will be wealthy, will move into higher society, and will own many vehicles.

12th House

- The 12th House is the house of loss; the person suffers from bad health but, being the Moksha house, also gains a spiritual bent of mind.
- If the 12th House is devoid of the conjunction or aspect of a benefic planet, the native will unfruitfully spend wealth and become very angry.
- As the 12th House is related to foreign lands, the placement of the Lagna Lord can give foreign residence.

2nd Lord in Different Houses

1st House

- When the 2nd Lord is strong and with benefics, the native makes wealth through personal efforts.
- If weak, there will be more expenses.
- The native will be endowed with sons and wealth but may be inimical to his family, lustful, hard-hearted, and engaged in others' jobs.

2nd House

- The native will be wealthy, proud, and blessed with a very good family.
- Malefic aspects may disturb married life and cause problems with the wife and family.
- A well-placed malefic here may lead to academic distinction in scientific fields due to deep research associations.

3rd House

- When the Lord of money goes to the house of creative arts and talents, the native can earn through art, drama, music, and with the help of brothers.
- A malefic aspect or placement may cause wealth loss due to brothers.

4th House

- Wealth is generated through property, mother, agriculture, conveyance, lands, education, and vehicles.
- The native gets inheritance, is truthful, and kind-hearted.
- If conjunct with Jupiter or in its exaltation sign, the native may achieve king-like status.

5th House

- A well-placed 2nd Lord gives wealth through lottery, shares, temples, education, children, and the government.
- Malefic associations may cause loss of wealth through these sources.

6th House

- This placement is favorable for earning through the medical profession.
- If badly placed, the native may incur continuous debts and struggle to repay loans.
- If conjunct with benefics, the native may gain wealth through enemies; malefics may cause losses.

7th House

- Wealth may come from foreign sources, business in foreign countries, partnerships, the wife, and women.
- The native may traverse others' wives and practice medicine if well-placed.

8th House

- The 2nd Lord aspects the 2nd House from here, making it favorable despite the loss-oriented 8th House.
- Wealth through inheritance is likely, but marital discord and lack of happiness from elder siblings may occur.

9th House

- Wealth may come through the father and religious activities.
- The native may have to leave the father's place for growth in life.
- The native may be wealthy, diligent, and skilled but face childhood health issues.

10th House

- The native will be learned, wealthy, and earn money through honest means like service, trade, commerce, religion, and lectures.
- Multiple marriages and limited family happiness are possible.

11th House

- The native may earn through elder brothers.
- The 2nd Lord in the 11th House ensures all kinds of wealth, gains, honor, and fame.

12th House

- If well-placed, the native may earn money through religious activities and foreign sources.
- Wealth is easily spent, leaving little savings.
- The native may be adventurous, dependent on others, and lack happiness from the eldest son.

3rd Lord in Different Houses

1st House

- If the 3rd Lord is situated in the Ascendant, the native will have self-made wealth, be disposed to serve, valorous, and intelligent, although devoid of learning.
- This is also a combination for actors, musicians, and dancers.

2nd House

- If the 3rd Lord is in the 2nd House, the native will be corpulent, devoid of valor, less disposed to take initiative, unhappy, and will have eyes on others' wives and wealth.

3rd House

- If the 3rd Lord occupies the 3rd House, the native will be happy through brothers, wealthy, have sons, and be cheerful and extremely happy.
- This placement is excellent for hobbies and sports. If benefic planets are present, it promotes singing and voice-related careers.
- Example: Lata Mangeshkar had the 3rd Lord Moon in the 3rd House.

4th House

- If the 3rd Lord is situated in the 4th House, the native will be happy, wealthy, and intelligent.
- If afflicted, they may lose land and live on others' property.

5th House

- If the 3rd Lord is in the 5th House, the native will have good relations with brothers, hold government positions, and be blessed with sons.
- If aspected by a malefic, the native's wife may be cruel.
- A weak 3rd Lord may cause delayed or denied childbirth.

6th House

- If the 3rd Lord is in the 6th House, the native will be good at sports and athletics.
- They may create enemies due to speech and have enmity with maternal uncles while loving maternal aunts.

7th House

- If the 3rd Lord is in the 7th House, the native's brother may live abroad and succeed.
- The native may have a government service career and gain happiness later in life despite childhood struggles.
- A weak 3rd Lord may cause illicit relationships and government punishments.

8th House

- A strong 3rd Lord in the 8th House indicates excellence in research work.

- A weak 3rd Lord can cause health issues, criminal behavior, and a troubled married life.

9th House

- A strong 3rd Lord in the 9th House signifies good relations with brothers, long journeys, and foreign travel.
- The native may gain fortune through the spouse and be blessed with sons.
- A weak Lord can cause paternal unhappiness.

10th House

- If the 3rd Lord is in the 10th House, the native will gain happiness, self-made wealth, and may engage in performing arts like singing, acting, or dancing.

11th House

- If the 3rd Lord is in the 11th House, the native will succeed in trade, be intelligent, and adventurous.
- A weak 3rd Lord indicates serving others.

12th House

- If the 3rd Lord is in the 12th House, the native may stay abroad, spend wealth on evil deeds, and have a cruel father.
- The native may gain fortune through the spouse.

4th Lord in Different Houses

1st House

- The native is blessed with learning, virtues, ornaments, lands, conveyances, and maternal happiness.

2nd House

- The native will enjoy wealth, family life, and honor but may be cunning and deceptive.

3rd House

- If the 4th Lord is in the 3rd House, the native will be valorous, possess self-earned wealth, and be charitable.
- They may face worries due to the house being the 12th from its own position.

4th House

- If the 4th Lord occupies the 4th House, the native will rise to ministerial rank, possess wealth, and be skillful, virtuous, honorable, learned, and happy.
- They will gain maternal happiness, property, and vehicles.
- Success in agriculture is likely.

5th House

- The native will have a sharp mind, many houses, and wealth.
- They will be a devotee of Lord Vishnu, virtuous, honorable, and possess self-earned wealth.

6th House

- Conflicts with the mother and legal issues related to property may arise.
- If the 4th Lord is afflicted, the native will be devoid of maternal happiness, have a wrathful temperament, and indulge in questionable activities.

7th House

- If the 4th Lord is in the 7th House, the native will be highly learned and may leave paternal property.
- They may gain property through the spouse and succeed in business.

8th House

- If the 4th Lord is in the 8th House, the native may be devoid of comforts and maternal happiness.
- This placement may bring parental property or hidden treasures if well-placed.
- If afflicted, it may cause property disputes and maternal accidents.

9th House

- If the 4th Lord is in the 9th House, the native will be loved by all, be religious, virtuous, honorable, and enjoy all kinds of happiness.

10th House

- The native will enjoy royal honors, possess great skills, be pleased, experience pleasure, and control the five senses.

11th House

- The native may fear secret diseases but be liberal, virtuous, charitable, and helpful to others.

12th House

- If the 4th Lord is in the 12th House, the native will lack domestic comforts, indulge in vices, and be foolish and indolent.
- This is favorable for foreign residence and owning a home abroad.

5th Lord in Different Houses

1st House

- If the 5th Lord occupies the Ascendant, the native will be scholarly, blessed with children, and enjoy happiness.
- He will be a master of many servants, a judge or minister, and religious.
- If weak, the native will be miserly, crooked, and prone to stealing others' wealth.

2nd House

- If the 5th Lord occupies the 2nd House, the native will have many sons and wealth.
- He will be a supporter of his family, honorable, attached to his wife, and famous in the world.
- If weak, family life will be disturbed, poverty may result, and problems related to the lungs can arise.

3rd House

- If the 5th Lord is situated in the 3rd House, the native will be dear to his brothers, a tale-bearer, miserly, and always interested in his own work.
- If weak, the native may face problems with children and be deceitful.

4th House

- If the 5th Lord occupies the 4th House, the native will be happy, have maternal happiness, wealth, and intelligence, and be a king, minister, or preceptor.
- This is a good combination of Kendra and Trine (Trikona).
- As the 4th House is the 12th from the 5th, it can cause loss of children.

5th House

- If the 5th Lord is placed in the 5th House and conjunct with a benefic, the native will be blessed with sons, virtuous, and dear to friends.
- This is a good combination for profession, education, and close government connections, especially for mathematicians and religious leaders.
- If conjunct with a malefic, it can harm children's longevity, cause fickle-mindedness, anger, and harsh dealings.

6th House

- If the 5th Lord is in the 6th House, the native's sons will be like enemies or may die.
- The native may acquire an adopted or purchased son.
- This placement can cause breaks in education, delays, or denial of children.

7th House

- If the 5th Lord is situated in the 7th House, the native will be tolerant of all religions, religious, and helpful to others.

- It indicates love marriage and the possibility of a son settling abroad.
- If weak, there will be a loss of children and love.

8th House

- If the 5th Lord is in the 8th House, the native will have less progenic happiness and suffer from respiratory diseases, lung problems, and bad finances.
- Breaks in education and love affairs are likely.
- This is favorable for spiritual growth, mantra sadhana, and kundalini awakening.

9th House

- If the 5th Lord is placed in the 9th House, the native will be like a prince or an illustrious author.
- It is an excellent combination for writing and spiritual practices.
- If weak, it can cause misfortune and bad luck.

10th House

- If the 5th Lord occupies the 10th House, the native will be blessed with Raj Yoga, governmental favor, pleasures, and fame.
- This combination ensures work in the same field as the native's education, ideal for self-employment.
- If weak, education and profession suffer.

11th House

- If the 5th Lord is in the 11th House, the native will be learned, popular, an illustrious author, skillful, and blessed with many sons and wealth.
- If weak, the native will earn money with difficulty and have shallow knowledge.

12th House

- If the 5th Lord is in the 12th House, the native will lack happiness from sons, and children may live far away.
- The 5th House represents past life merits, while the 12th signifies Moksha, making this placement ideal for spiritual growth.
- The native will visit various religious places.

6th Lord in Different Houses

1st House

- If the 6th Lord is situated in the Ascendant, the native will be sickly, famous, inimical to relatives, adventurous, and virtuous.
- It makes the native a high administrator, minister of war, or official concerned with prisons.
- If weak, the person may become a thief, robber, or criminal.
- Association with malefics can cause mental problems.

2nd House

- The native will be adventurous, illustrious in the family, live in foreign lands, be happy, a good speaker, and always interested in work.
- If weak, family life suffers, and the person may be unappreciated despite doing much for the family.
- May have defective eyes, teeth, and speech issues, leading to poverty and debts.

3rd House

- The native will be quarrelsome, uncompromising, bereft of courage, and inimical to brothers.
- Servants will be disobedient.

4th House

- The native will be devoid of maternal happiness, possibly due to an immoral mother.
- They may be intelligent, a talebearer, jealous, and fickle-minded.
- Education and maternal happiness suffer.
- Property disputes and legal troubles are possible, indicating a miserable life.

5th House

- The native's wealth will fluctuate, and they may have enmity with their son and friends.
- They will be happy, selfish, and kind.
- If weak, both education and the son will suffer.

6th House

- The native will have enmity with kinsmen but good friendships with others.
- They will experience only moderate happiness in wealth matters.
- The person develops great strength to handle uncontrollable challenges, and the maternal uncle may be wealthy.

7th House

- The native will lack happiness in marriage, be famous, virtuous, honorable, adventurous, and wealthy.
- The wife's health may be poor, and impotency is possible.

- This placement gives bad results in marriage.

8th House

- The native will be sickly, inimical to the learned, desirous of others' wealth, and interested in others' spouses.
- It gives a medium lifespan and gambling habits, which may lead to syphilis and troublesome periods.
- It forms a Vipreet Raj Yoga, giving good results after initial hardships.

9th House

- The father can become an enemy if the 6th Lord is afflicted.
- The 6th Lord destroys the house where it sits.
- If placed in the 9th House, it harms fortune and luck.

10th House

- If strong, the native will be illustrious in the family, not very devoted to parents, a gifted speaker, and happy in foreign countries.
- If afflicted, the native will engage in bad deeds, pretend to be religious, and be sinful.
- Frequent job changes, transfers, or a shift from job to business is possible.

11th House

- The native will gain from enemies, be virtuous, adventurous, and honorable.
- If weak, poverty, gambling addiction, and a miserable life are likely.

12th House

- Money will be spent on evil means, and the native will be inimical to the learned and violent toward animals.
- A miserable life is predicted.

7th Lord in Different Houses

1st House

- The native will be attached to his wife and may marry someone known since childhood.
- Constant traveling and working with many women are indicated.
- If badly placed, there can be more than one marriage.
- In the dasha of the 7th Lord, there may be the death of the wife.

2nd House

- The native may have many wives if the 7th Lord is in a dual sign or afflicted.
- Gains wealth through the spouse but tends to procrastinate.
- The Maraka dasha can be harmful to health.

3rd House

- The native's brother may live abroad.
- Adultery with the brother's wife and misfortune to the co-born are possible.

4th House

- A happy wife brings all kinds of domestic happiness.
- High academic qualifications and many vehicles are indicated.
- If weak or afflicted, there will be no domestic happiness and problems with conveyances.

5th House

- The native will be honorable, virtuous, delighted, and wealthy.
- Early marriage, love marriage, and a wealthy spouse are possible.
- If afflicted, there will be no children.

6th House

- The native's wife will be sickly or face health issues.
- The native may be angry, inimical toward the spouse, and devoid of happiness.
- This placement can indicate divorce, especially if afflicted, and two marriages are possible.

7th House

- The native will be happy, courageous, skillful, and intelligent but may suffer from windy diseases.
- A charming personality and a wife from a good family are indicated.
- If weak, there will be marriage problems, loneliness, or even separation.

8th House

- Marital happiness will be lacking.
- The spouse may be afflicted by diseases, bad-natured, and disobedient.

9th House

- The native will have multiple relationships but remain attached to the spouse.
- The father may live abroad, and the native will undertake many deeds.
- In a female chart, an afflicted 7th Lord can cause marriage disturbances, divorce, separation, or canceled engagements.

10th House

- The native will be religious, wealthy, and blessed with sons.
- Professional success abroad and working with or receiving help from the spouse are indicated.
- This is a good placement as it involves two Kendras.

11th House

- The native will gain wealth through the spouse, who will be very rich.
- Multiple marriages, legal or otherwise, are possible.

12th House

- The native will be miserly, and the spouse will be a spendthrift.
- Earnings may come through trading textiles or garments.
- Illicit affairs, separation, late marriage, or the death of the spouse are possible.

8th Lord in Different Houses

1st House

- The native will be deprived of bodily pleasures, disrespectful to gods and Brahmins, and prone to wounds.
- This placement can cause poverty, debt, poor health, and government displeasure.
- Continuous problems in life and health issues are likely unless the 8th Lord is in its own rashi or exalted.

2nd House

- The native will lack physical vigor, possess little wealth, and struggle to regain lost wealth.
- Problems in the family and separation from the spouse are likely.
- There may be issues with the eyes and teeth.
- However, inheritance, hidden wealth, unexpected gains, and long life are possible due to the aspect on the 8th House.

3rd House

- Fraternal happiness will be lacking, and the native will be lazy, devoid of energy, and without servants.
- Problems with the younger brother are likely.
- This combination creates various life challenges.

4th House

- The native may be deprived of the mother, home, land, and happiness.
- Betrayal from friends and a lack of peace of mind are indicated.
- Benefic aspects can promote spiritual growth but cause struggles in acquiring property and vehicles.

5th House

- The native will be dull-witted and have few children.
- Good for studying history, ancient languages, and spiritual pursuits like mantra sadhana and samadhi.
- If in its own house or exalted, negative results will be minimized.

6th House

- The native will overcome opponents but have a diseased body.
- Childhood may involve danger from snakes, drugs, or water.

7th House

- This placement indicates divorce or separation and possibly the death of the first spouse.
- Business losses and an irresponsible nature are likely.

8th House

- The native will be long-lived unless the 8th Lord is weak, which gives a medium lifespan.
- Blame and accusations may occur.
- Benefic aspects promote spirituality.

9th House

- This is dangerous for the father and can cause loss of religious faith.
- The native may adopt a new religion, steal others' money, and be deceitful.

10th House

- Lack of paternal bliss, instability in career, and frequent job changes are possible.
- Careers in astrology or occult sciences may develop.
- Many career obstacles are likely.

11th House

- The native will lose money, especially if afflicted by malefics, which can cause poverty.
- Benefic aspects may bring unexpected gains through speculation, gambling, or shares.

12th House

- Money will be spent on negative pursuits, and the native may be short-lived.
- Foreign residence, export-import business, and gains through trade are possible.
- Benefic aspects promote spiritual growth.

9th Lord in Different Houses

1st House

- A very good combination, as the 9th Lord in the Ascendant (both Kendra and Trikona) makes the native well-learned, famous, fortunate, and charming.
- In females, it signifies a great wife.
- If weak, it causes poverty, misfortune, lack of support from the wife, and marriage problems.

2nd House

- Brings wealth through family, foreign connections, and family support.
- The native is a learned scholar, dear to all, and enjoys happiness from the spouse.
- If weak, there may be marital issues, family litigation, and humiliation.

3rd House

- Indicates happiness from brothers, spiritual discourses, and interest in writing, publication, and oratory.
- Travels to holy places and foreign lands.
- If malefic, it causes problems in writing, loss of father's wealth, and misfortune.

4th House

- Combines Kendra and Trikona, ensuring all kinds of happiness, luxuries, houses, and wealth.
- The native's mother is prosperous and long-lived.
- If weak, it brings problems related to the mother, land, and happiness.

5th House

- Strong for spirituality, learning, and talented children.
- Indicates foreign education, mantra siddhi, and proximity to a guru.
- If weak, causes problems for the father, children, and fortune.

6th House

- The native may work in the judiciary or become a judge.
- Father's career improves after the native's birth, but litigation and debts may arise.
- If malefic, the native faces maternal uncle's troubles and enemies.

7th House

- Brings happiness and fortune after marriage, along with foreign wealth.
- The native is popular with the opposite sex and enjoys luxuries.
- If weak, there will be marriage problems, poor health of the father, and a short first marriage.

8th House

- Benefic placement brings spiritual insight, occult knowledge, and sudden gains.

- Inclination toward research and soul-searching.
- If weak, it causes misfortune, inheritance disputes, and health problems for the father.

9th House

- In its own house, it grants all kinds of fortunes, wealth, and happiness.
- Excellent for spirituality, leadership, and political roles.
- If afflicted, it brings life challenges, stomach issues, and a lack of paternal support.

10th House

- Considered a highly favorable placement, granting “Dharma Karam Adhipati Yoga.”
- Brings power, high rank, fame, wealth, and charitable nature.
- If weak, it causes job loss, humiliation, and punishment by the government.

11th House

- Indicates financial gains, devotion to teachers, and charitable deeds.
- Brings income through publications, entertainment, and government services.
- If with malefics like Rahu or Saturn, wealth comes through illegal means.

12th House

- Indicates foreign settlement and spiritual growth, living in a guru’s ashram.
- If weak, it causes financial losses, father’s death, and excessive spending on auspicious acts.

10th Lord in Different Houses

1st House

- Indicates learning, fame, poetic talent, and childhood health issues.
- Wealth increases steadily, possibly making the native a high-ranking officer.

2nd House

- Brings wealth, honor, charitable nature, and paternal bliss.
- Business prospects include restaurants, banking, and finance.
- If afflicted, causes business losses.

3rd House

- Promotes business involving travel, writing, and partnerships with brothers.
- Career grows slowly but steadily.

4th House

- Brings wealth, academic success, vehicles, and property.
- Business prospects include real estate and agriculture.

5th House

- Strong educational foundation, wealth, and high status.
- Good for working with the government but can cause disagreements with superiors.

6th House

- Indicates jobs related to law, judiciary, and healthcare.
- If afflicted, causes career problems, imprisonment, and legal disputes.

7th House

- Promotes career success through foreign travels, diplomacy, and a supportive partner.
- If afflicted, causes illicit relationships and moral issues.

8th House

- Career setbacks, criminal behavior, and unstable jobs are likely.
- Benefic aspects may bring temporary high rank but eventual downfall.

9th House

- Signifies extreme fortune, royal-like status, and spiritual inclinations.
- If afflicted, causes paternal loss, career instability, and moral failures.

10th House

- Ensures a successful career, strong work ethic, and support from teachers.
- If afflicted, causes confusion and career instability.

11th House

- Indicates financial success, happiness from children, and respect in society.
- If afflicted, friends may betray the native.

12th House

- Promotes jobs abroad or in distant places.
- If afflicted, indicates unlawful activities, smuggling, and involvement in the underworld.

11th Lord in Different Houses

1st House

- Born in a rich family, extremely fortunate, and earns much wealth.
- An exalted 11th Lord ensures birth in a very powerful family.

2nd House

- The native will be endowed with all kinds of wealth and accomplishments, be charitable, religious, and always happy.
- Earnings can come from banks, interest income, and commercial companies.

3rd House

- The native will be skillful in all jobs, wealthy, and blessed with fraternal bliss.
- May incur gout pains and will be the eldest or youngest in the family.
- Rise in life through self-effort and hard work; earns through 3rd House professions.

4th House

- Gains from maternal relatives, pilgrimages, and happiness from house and lands.
- Example: Bill Gates.

5th House

- Children will be happy, educated, and virtuous.
- The native will be religious, happy, and prosperous through speculation.
- Affliction may cause gambling tendencies.

6th House

- The native will generally remain sickly, be cruel, live in foreign places, and be troubled by enemies.
- Gains wealth through nursing, litigation, and the medical profession.
- Wealth comes from hard work and overcoming enemies.

7th House

- Gains through the wife's relatives, liberal, virtuous, and sensual.
- May reside in foreign lands after marriage.
- Affliction can cause a troubled married life and extramarital relationships.

8th House

- Suffers losses in undertakings but will be long-lived.
- Wife may pass away before the native.
- Indicates unexpected gains and inheritance.
- Affliction may cause losses through thieves and cheats.

9th House

- The native will be fortunate, skillful, truthful, honored by authorities, and wealthy.
- Gains from father's inheritance, luxury, and religious deeds.

10th House

- Brings honor, high ranks, virtues, devotion to religion, truthfulness, and control over senses.
- Leads to a big name, status, and major achievements.

11th House

- Ensures gains in all undertakings, continuous learning, and increasing happiness.

12th House

- Spends on good deeds, is sensual, and may have multiple wives.
- Gains from foreign trade and export-import business.
- Elder siblings may settle abroad or face health issues if afflicted.
- Penalties from tax authorities are possible.

12th Lord in Different Houses

1st House

- If the 12th Lord is situated in the Ascendant, the native will be a spendthrift, weak in constitution, prone to phlegmatic disorders, and devoid of wealth and learning.
- If benefically placed, this is a good combination for spiritual upliftment.

2nd House

- The native will spend money on auspicious deeds, be religious, speak sweetly, and be blessed with virtues and happiness.
- Family life will be disturbed, with weak eyesight and disrupted eating habits.
- If afflicted, expenses may equal or exceed income, leaving no savings.

3rd House

- The native will lack fraternal bliss, harbor hatred toward others, and be self-centered.
- Problems for siblings, cowardice, and potential hearing issues are indicated.

4th House

- Maternal happiness will be missing, with losses in land, conveyances, and houses over time.
- Mental worries and strained relations with relatives will occur.
- Problems related to property and conveyance are likely.

5th House

- The native will lack sons and learning, but may spend money on pilgrimages in hopes of having children.

6th House

- The native will face enmity with close relatives, be angry, sinful, and miserable.
- A strong placement forms Vipreet Raj Yoga, making the native rich, healthy, and able to overcome enemies.
- If afflicted, the person becomes unhappy, immoral, and hostile toward the mother.

7th House

- The native will spend money because of the spouse and lack conjugal bliss, learning, and strength.
- No education or property accumulation is expected.

8th House

- This placement indicates gains, affable speech, good qualities, and a medium lifespan.
- Forms Vipreet Raj Yoga, granting sudden gains and spiritual elevation.

9th House

- The native will dishonor teachers, be inimical even to friends, and be self-serving.
- Likely to live abroad, causing harm to the father and dissatisfaction with spouse, friends, and mentors.

10th House

- The native will rise through influential people but experience moderate paternal bliss.
- Likely professions include jailer, doctor, and working abroad or in multinational corporations.

11th House

- Despite having gain combinations, the native will incur losses and experience only small profits from others' wealth.

12th House

- The native will spend heavily, lack physical felicity, and be irritable and spiteful.

Astrological Insights

- The effects of the Lords of the Houses depend on their strengths and weaknesses.
- If a planet owns two signs, effects from both lordships must be considered.
- A strong planet yields full results, while weaker planets provide partial effects.